5 FAMILY-FRIENDLY WINE REGIONS

Have your Cab Sav and drink it too on a trip where kids are entertained and parents can relax

Just because you're traveling with kids doesn't automatically mean that you have to cross wine regions off your list of places to visit. Wineries are often some of the most beautiful landscapes on the planet, surrounded by excellent cultural and adventurous opportunities—not to mention great food and wine. Here, discover six of the best wine tasting vacation destinations for your entire brood.

Millahue Valley

Viña Vik, a hotel and spa overlooking the Winery at Vik in Millahue, Chile, has created special program for children including “Smell Don't Taste” wine non-tasting, field oenology (where they learn the viticulture and viniculture of wine making), cooking classes, paintball and capture the flag on the winery's 11,000 acres.
