

FOOD & WINE TOUR

A Culinary Experience in Chile with andBeyond

CHILE IS SO TASTY

Chile is one of world's most vibrant countries, with tantalising cuisine that pays homage to its spectacularly beautiful landscapes and rich cultural heritage. This 5-day journey focuses on the country's central region, with two days spent in the nation's capital Santiago, and two more in its flourishing Wine Country. The Santiago leg of the tour showcases the best food and beverages the city has to offer, with visits to markets, barrios, restaurants and bars. The second half of the journey will take guests deep into the heart of Chile's Wine Country, with a focus on the stunning Vik winery, in the Colchagua Valley.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO SANTIAGO

Enjoy a short orientation tour of the city, which will highlight the contrasts between the downtown centre and the city's new uptown areas. In the evening, tuck into a superb dinner at one of the country's best restaurants.
